CORNAS CHANTE-PEDRIX 2013

WINE SPECTATOR

James Molesworth, November 2015

93 Points

Features a dense core of steeped dark plum, black currant and blackberry fruit, melding with singed bay leaf and tobacco leaf, dark olive and baker's chocolate notes. This has serious heft and muscle overall, but the elements pull together on the finish thanks a mouthwatering chalky spine. A very impressive effort. Best from 2017 through 2027.
