COMMAND SHIRAZ 2014

HALLIDAY AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION 2018

James Halliday, August 2017

97 Points

Hewn of 1894 ancient vine oomph and tannin management of aplomb, this is power corseted by a filmy, gossamer texture and sheer, strident vinosity. Put it this way, the wine could come from nowhere else, yet the overall impression is one of Elderton's newfound restraint. Oodles of dark fruit, anise, tar, camphor and a Cadbury milk chocolate creaminess coat the palate. There is a barrel ferment smokiness, too. The extraction levels are a point; the use of French and American oak sensitive. All is in a harmony and perfectly suited to the style.

Deep red colour with a lick of purple. The bouquet has vegetal, sousbois hints and the chocolate and vanilla... Dark chocolate, dense, concentrated and oaky.

Elegant green tea and herbal shadings edge the core of pure fruit notes, with cherry and pomegranate flavors and a peppery detail. Harmonious on the finish. Drink now through 2028.
