PINOT GRIS 2017

FMCG BUSINESS MAGAZINE

Cameron Douglas MS, April 2018

93 Points

Pure varietal bouquet of Gris with crunchy pear and apple, a hint of quince, light leesy spice and squeeze of citrus. The spice notes increase on the palate with a soft oak layer contrasting with ripe fruit flavours, medium+ acidity and lengthy persistent finish. Great balance and length. Drink now and through 2022

Central Otago has serious talent when it comes to hitting the stage with class-act pinot gris. Brand new and framed with an elegant line of nashi and quince, this new release is delicately fruity, with a lovely chalky texture and cleansing finish. Sourced from vineyards growing at the foot of Mount Maude in Wanaka and made by Sarah-Kate and Dan Dineen, it's a style that has a spring in its step and love in its heart. Sip with: twice-baked blue cheese soufflé.
