TERROIR SERIES AMBROSIA 2011

SOMMELIER WINE AWARDS

May 2017

---

Gold Medal

'A blockbuster,' began team leader Martin Lam in his praise of this big, bold Gold winner, continuing: 'Dark, spiced plum and oak on the nose, leading to a big and structured palate, with black fruit and a salty, savoury note.' Sumilier's Sumi Sarma appreciated its 'savoury and sweet edge, with a lot of richness, as well as elegance and maturity', while Hakkasan Group's Diana Rollan was enamoured with its 'earthy, meaty, plum and cherry aromas', noting that it was 'big and bold on the palate, showing sweet spices, plum and violets with nice concentration, and full in body and tannins'.

INTERNATIONAL WINE CHALLENGE

---

Gold Medal & Uco Valley Malbec Trophy

Deep, amazingly youthful looking. Fresh and lightly perfumed with very good depth of fruits. Inky, spicy. The highlight of the wine is the freshness of the finish. Sugar and acidity are well balanced. Broad but supple tannins. Pure class.
