MOUTERE DRY RIESLING 2015

BOBCAMPBELL.NZ

5 Stars & 95 Points

Pure, delicate riesling with lime zest, chalky mineral and subtle white flower flavours. Dry, but certainly not austere wine, with a fine backbone of taut acidity balanced by subliminal sweetness. Delicious but worth cellaring if you enjoy the more mellow, toasty character that this schizophrenic grape variety can bring with age. Ageing: now to 2025. Food Match: Line caught blue cod with prawn, butternut, orange and ginger.

Brilliant pale straw-yellow colour with slight green hues, lighter edged. The nose is very fine in presentation with a tightly bound and concentrated aromatic core of lime fruit, wet-stone minerals, subtle flinty detail and pure white florals. The aromatics grow in depth and intensity, whilst retaining finesse and clarity. Dry to taste and light-medium bodied, the palate features a tightly bound heart of white stonefruits, limes and apples along with white florals and mouthwatering mineral detail. The flavours blossom ethereally, but are driven by a linear and driven core that follows a very fine phenolic line that carries the wine to a thirst-quenching, pristine finish of limes and minerals. This is a tightly bound, crisp, mouthwateringly dry Riesling with ethereally rich lime, floral and mineral flavours. Serve as an aperitif, with seafood and Asian cuisine over the next 5-6+ years. Fruit from 'Rosie's Block', Moutere, hand-picked, WBP and indigenous yeast fermented, 93% in stainless-steel and 7% in old puncheon on gross lees, to 12.0% alc. and 7.7 g/L RS, TA 7.9 g/L and pH 2.82.

4.5 Stars

The 2015 vintage was estate-grown in Rosie's Block, hand-harvested and fermented with indigenous yeasts in tanks (93 per cent) and old oak puncheons (7 per cent). Pale lemon/lime, it is an elegant, tightly structured wine, medium to full-bodied, with strong, citrusy, limey, vaguely biscuity flavours, a gentle splash of sweetness (7.7 grams/litre of residual sugar) and fresh, balanced acidity. Already enjoyable, it should be at its best 2018+.
