Appealing Prosecco with a soft, ethereal texture and a nice mix of fruit (citrus and floral mainly) with nutty, savoury characters. A clean, fresh and nicely balanced wine that makes a bit of noise

It's immediately appealing on the nose showing peach, citrus and floral with a hint of almond complexity. The palate is bright and juicy with elegant fruit intensity, leading to a lingering finish. This is Prosecco at its best - so refreshing and pleasing on the palate.

Prosecco is often bone dry but this has a gentle touch of sweetness which makes it universally appealing. It has a delightful creamy apple bouquet, the bubbles dance in the mouth before breaking into foam, the fruit is subtle, there's a refreshing touch of salinity and the lingering finish is soft and long.
