THOMAS BARTON RESERVE ST-EMILION 2012

WINE ORBIT

Sam Kim, October 2015

5 Stars & 93 Points

This merlot dominant red is fabulously fragrant on the nose displaying dark berry, cedar, vanilla and bouquet garni characters, followed by a stylish palate that is concentrated and finely textured, and offers silky flow to the finish. The wine is wonderfully structured by polished tannins, making this a superb food partner. At its best: now to 2022.
