

SCRUBBY RISE

When the late Greg Trott christened a flat, barren landscape at the front of our winery 'Scrubby Rise', he started a theme that things aren't always as they seem at Wirra Wirra. In keeping with Trott's laid back Aussie humour, today the vineyard is overlooked by a viewing platform known as 'The Jetty', while a well dressed gent in a red boat rows between the vines. The message is not to take life too seriously.

Vintage

2014

Region

Adelaide (Langhorne Creek)

Grape Variety

Shiraz (62%) Cabernet Sauvignon (38%)

Colour

Deep plum with a bright crimson edge.

Bouquet

The nose is led by fresh red currants and raspberry fruits of shiraz, and balanced by the fragrant leafiness of cabernet.

Palate

Juicy, succulent raspberry, blueberry and cassis sweetness surround the fine and supple tannins. A bright, medium bodied palate with length and immediate appeal.

Drink

Drink now to 5 years.

Food Match

Baked enchiladas with chorizo, smoky beef and black bean.

Vinification

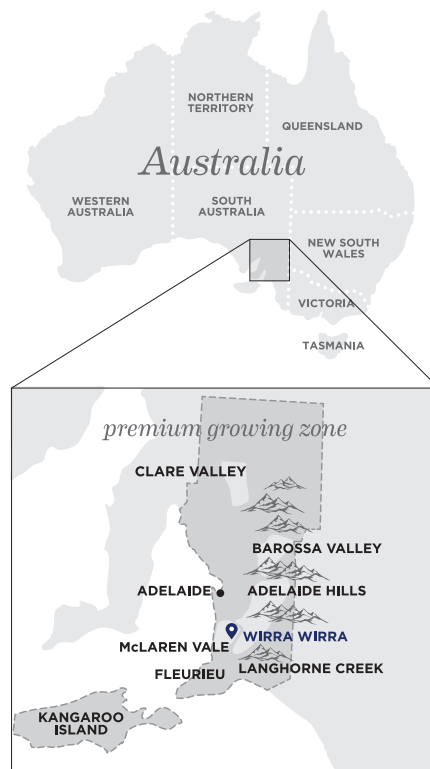

Individual vineyard parcels were crushed and destemmed to stainless static red fermenters. Pumpovers were tailored daily, dependent upon levels of colour, flavour and tannin extraction. Once the desired levels were achieved the ferment was pressed off skins. Select parcels underwent maturation in seasoned French & American oak before blending.
