

Reviews & Accolades

OLOROSO PATA GALLINA JARANA

DECANTER WORLD WINE AWARDS

May 2018

Gold Medal & 95 Points

Complex, restrained and elegant with notes of fresh fig, glazed baked apple, ginger spice and a moreish, rounded nuttiness that goes on and on.

INTERNATIONAL WINE & SPIRITS COMPETITION

May 2017

Gold Medal

Pale bronze with mahogany hues. Massive concentration of walnuts, figs, raisin and treacle on the nose. Lifted acidity keeps the taste fresh. The whold is round, smooth yet with superb lasting power on the finish.

INTERNATIONAL WINE CHALLENGE

May 2018

Silver Medal & 91 Points

Dried mandarin peel accented with marzipan and cinnamon, spicy palate.

INTERNATIONAL WINE CHALLENGE

May 2017

Silver Medal

Dark amber lifted toffee, sea salt. Round, smooth and broad with hints of figs, dried fruit, walnut and orange peel. Long finish.

DECANTER WORLD WINE AWARDS

July 2016

Silver Medal & 94 Points

Precise, textbook Oloroso, giving aromas of nuts, old wood, caramel, smoked meats, vanilla and caramel. The palate is long and harmonious, with a silky texture, Christmas spices and a saline finish.

WINE SPECTATOR

James Molesworth, June 2017

91 Points

Leans to the generous side, with a slightly off-dry mix of sesame, buckwheat and date flavors,

INTERNATIONAL WINE & SPIRITS COMPETITION

June 2015

Silver Medal

WINE SPECTATOR

James Molesworth, August 2014

91 Points

Offers a flattering, off-dry edge up front, with notes of date and caramel caressing the core of bitter orange, singed almond and licorice root. Turns progressively firmer through the finish, featuring dried nectarine and toasted walnut accents. Drink now.